Organizer: Chair of Prof. Ursprung

Lecturers : Prof. Dr. Philip Ursprung

Time : Fridays, 09.00 - 09:45

Location : HIL E1, ETH Hönggerberg

The concept of nature is inseparable from the history of industrialization. It is a screen onto which both hopes and fears are projected. The lecture follows the question how art and architecture, from the late 18th century to the present, are dealing with the ambivalent concept of nature.
